

Lisa Freeman Scholarship

Lisa Freeman lives in so many hearts of the children and families she nurtured and inspired over her 30 years of being a Waldorf Early Childhood Teacher.

This scholarship is intended to continue her teaching legacy and love for outdoor teaching and learning environments by awarding a Sophia's Hearth student seeking their Early Childhood Certificate a little bit of Lisa's encouragement from the heavens.

It is not a needs based award.     Application Due by: October 30

In a separate document please respond to the following. Completed applications should be emailed to: lisafreemanscholarship@gmail.com

Student Name: _____

1. What program are you enrolled in at Sophia's Hearth?
2. What experiences inspired you to be a Waldorf teacher?
3. Why have you chosen to teach early childhood (birth - 7)? (brief statement)
4. Why do you believe we should award this scholarship to you? (brief statement)
5. Scholarship Essay: Lisa loved being outdoors and believed children learn best surrounded by nature. She had created beautiful outdoor playscapes throughout her Waldorf EC teaching years. Can you describe how you would design a magical outdoor space for your students and what you would like it to look like? (OR) how a special outdoor play area lives in your own memory from childhood?

Please include a photograph or drawing of this place.

This Scholarship will be chosen by a panel and awarded based on similarities in teaching approaches to how Lisa Freeman would like her legacy of teaching to continue. Thank you for taking the time and effort to consider applying for this very special award in memory of one very special teacher to children.
